Internship

SEP Intern May 2023 - July 2023

JP Morgan Chase & Co.

- · Contributed to the advancement of the organization's robust Document Manager web application.
- Improved user experience and productivity by implementing comprehensive row grouping, column filtering and data filtering functionality using Angular Ag-Grid, enabling easier and faster navigation to relevant records.
- · Enhanced application performance, improved records' load time, and increased overall efficiency by implementing server-side pagination, and nested child pagination.
- · Wrote Angular unit test cases using Jasmine framework to validate the responsiveness of the grid on different resolutions, evaluate the functionality of row grouping and data filtering code, and verify the accuracy of API calls to the database. Created mocks, stubs, and spies, ensuring the isolation of dependencies and simulation of diverse scenarios for robust and stable code.
